Course Description:

This course introduces key thinkers, topics, case studies and theoretical frameworks related to the field of cultural studies. Students will be exposed to different toolkits for analysing everyday cultural practices, with a particular focus on historical, geographical, and personal identity. Films, fashion, art, graphic design, video, music, and other media objects will be analysed to engage with the theoretical frameworks presented. In addition to in-class theoretical discussion, students are encouraged to apply cultural theory in practice, through activities including gallery visits and first-hand explorations of consumerist practices.

Prerequisites:

GEP 4180 Research and Writing 2

Aims and Objectives:

This course aims to engage students in a focused analysis of selected cultural theories that have developed throughout the 20th century up through today. Students will be encouraged to generate detailed uses of these theories to investigate spaces, locations, and identities. Methods of cultural analysis and interpretation will be developed alongside written and oral presentation skills.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, successful students should be able to:

- Exhibit detailed understanding of how key concepts in cultural theory evolved historically and in response to changes in media forms and industry practices.
- Demonstrate detailed comprehension and critical engagement with well-established and emergent debates and issues in the development of these theories.
- Apply theories to the study of cultural texts in a competent and engaged manner that shows a detailed understanding of how media consumption is embedded in everyday life, and the relationship between discourse, culture and identity.
- With limited supervision and following required format, brief and deadline, demonstrate ability to formulate and synthesize cogent arguments from the field of cultural studies, referencing sources and ideas appropriately.

Indicative Content:

- What is 'Culture'?
- Hegemony
- Transnationalism and Cosmopolitanism
- Diaspora
- Hybridity and Ethnicity
- Orientalism
- Culture and the Gendered Body

Assessment:

This course conforms to the University Assessment Norms approved at Academic Board and located at: <https://www.richmond.ac.uk/university-policies/>

Teaching Methodology:

The course combines lectures with interactive discussion and student presentation of course materials. All students are expected to be fully prepared to participate in classroom discussions. Student work is assessed through a variety of ways using both formative and summative approaches. Feedback is intended to help improve student approach to learning and achieve better results.
