Course Description:

For students working independently on their Master's thesis. The dissertation encourages students to study intensively a topic agreed with a supervisor, and so develop skills and experience which can be applied in work placements or further graduate work. The course is comprised of intensive independent research and writing, overseen by thesis supervisor, resulting in production of a 15,000 word thesis. Collaborative and supportive dialogue with the supervisor and fellow 'junior research colleagues' will involve advice on the research and writing process, suggestions for resources and research directions, and comments on draft chapters of the thesis.

Prerequisites:

MA Communication for Social Change students only

Aims and Objectives:

- For the student to work with the supervisor, as their mentor, through the research, writing and production of an MA level thesis of 15,000 words
- For the student to undertake independent/autonomous research on a topic which makes a valuable contribution to the field

- To develop skills and experience which can be applied in the work placements or further graduate work

Programme Outcomes:

A1, A2, A3, B1, B3, B4, C2, C4, C5, D3, D4

A detailed list of the programme outcomes are found in the Programme Specification.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, successful students should be able to:

- Deploy sophisticated analysis using relevant conceptual frameworks, demonstrating critical thinking
- Design and conduct successful and original research, including application of appropriate methodologies for locating, assessing and interpreting primary sources
- Show excellent writing skills including logical and structured narratives and arguments supported by relevant primary and secondary evidence
- Demonstrate critical self-reflection through a sustained research project

Indicative Content:

- production of a 15,000 word thesis, suitably illustrated, evidencing:
- intensive autonomous study of a topic agreed with a supervisor
- primary research making a valuable contribution to the field
- a coherent argument
- appropriate, critical use of secondary sources
- footnotes and a bibliography complying with the Chicago Manual Style
- satisfactory presentation and scholarly apparatus

Assessment:

This course conforms to the University Assessment Norms approved at Academic Board and located at: <https://www.richmond.ac.uk/policies/>

Teaching Methodology:

Autonomous research and research supervision.

The course will require independent research overseen by a thesis supervisor, tutorial opportunities including working with specialist faculty for more specific academic guidance, including comments on draft materials, and faculty and peer review feedback.
