Course Description:

This course explores the ways in which we experience the literature of our time. Fiction, poetry and drama from a variety of different cultures are studied as we chart the intertextual connections of texts across languages, territories and histories. We will consider how texts circulate in print, in electronic forms and through audio-visual adaptations and develop a broad awareness of how contemporary literature moves across cultural and linguistic boundaries.

Prerequisites: None

Aims and Objectives:

- To become active and perceptive readers of how contemporary literature moves across geographic, cultural and linguistic boundaries and media
- To develop an understanding of the debates and ideas that have shaped the study of 'world literature'

- To demonstrate knowledge of the intertextual and historical contexts of select works and the critical approaches to them.

Programme Outcomes:

4Aii ; 4Bi ; 4Ci ; 4Cii ; 4Di ; 4Diii

A detailed list of the programme outcomes is found in the Programme Specification. This is maintained by Registry and located at:
