Credits:	60 UK CATS credits 30 ECTS credits 12 US credits

Course Description:

For students working independently on their Masters thesis. An extended thesis of 15,000-words is offered as an alternative to the mandatory internship. The dissertation encourages students to study intensively a topic agreed with a supervisor, and so develop skills and experience which can be applied in work placements or further graduate work. The course is comprised of independent research and writing, overseen by a thesis supervisor, resulting in production of a 15,000- word thesis. Collaborative and supportive dialogue with the supervisor and fellow 'junior research colleagues' will involve advice on the research and writing process, suggestions for resources and research directions, and comments on draft chapters of the thesis.

Pre-requisites: MA Art History and Visual Culture students only, offered as an alternative to those not taking the mandatory internship.

Aims and Objectives:

- For the supervisor to guide the student, as a junior research colleague, through the research, writing and production of an MA level thesis of 15,000-words
- For the student to undertake independent/autonomous research on a topic which makes a valuable contribution to the field
- To develop skills and experience which can be applied in work placements or further graduate work

Programme Outcomes:

At the end of this course, the students will have achieved the following programme outcomes:

B1, B2, B3, B4

A detailed list of the programme outcomes are found in the Programme Specification. This is maintained by Registry and located at <https://www.richmond.ac.uk/programme-and-course-specifications/>
