Course Description:

Students will complete at least 6 weeks of full time work or the equivalent part-time within an organization to enable participation in graduate level experiential learning and so develop hands-on skills and professional experience which will prepare students for work in the fields of advertising and public relations. Placements are supervised, career-related work experiences combined with reflective, academic study that help students 'learn by doing'. During the internship, the staff of the Internship Office and a faculty supervisor work closely with each student and the organization to ensure that the placement is a successful one.

Pre-requisite: MA APR students only.

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide students with an opportunity to participate in graduate-level experiential learning
- To develop the hands-on skills needed for a particular professional environment
- To prepare students for work in the field of performing arts management and administration
- To reflect upon work experience and possible future career paths
- To consider the application of learned academic knowledge within a professional context
- To develop students' professional communication skills, including written and oral communication

Programme Outcomes:

By the end of this course successful students will be able to C, F, G:

- C. Demonstrate a deep, systematic and innovative ability to adapt and apply the practice of Advertising and/or PR to multiple contexts
- F. Evidence the ability to exercise initiative in organising, pursuing and reflecting upon both supervised and self-directed individual and/or team projects, while accepting full accountability for outcomes
- G. Show the ability to gather, organise and deploy complex and abstract ideas and diverse information in complex and specialised contexts, while reflecting upon and improving the skills required for effective written and oral communication

A detailed list of the programme outcomes is found in the Programme Specification. This is maintained by Registry and located at: <https://www.richmond.ac.uk/programme-and-course-specifications/>

Teaching Methodology:

‘Experiential Learning involves direct encounter with the phenomena or discipline being studied and the learning is achieved through reflection upon the everyday experiences’ (Houle 1980). The Internship program utilizes these ideas and assists student with the process of self-learning support by a faculty supervisor. Faculty supervision will be in a combination of meetings, correspondence through email, and assessment of written work.
